HARMON SPEAKS ON AGRICULTURE

Interesting Addresses Before Southern Commercial Congress.

Nashville, Tenn., April 9.—Governor Judson Harmon, of Ohio, was received with much enthusiasm tonight when he appeared before the Southern Commercial Congress as the chief speaker on a program devoted to agriculture. Mr. Harmon's subject was, "Agriculture: The Basis of the National Strength."

Governor Harmon will leave early tomorrow morning for St. Louis.

Other speakers on the program tonight were John H. Small, member of Congress from North Carolina, who spoke on, "Moving the Agricultural College to the Farm;" Milton Whitney, chief of the Federal Bureau of Soils; and Clarence J. Owens, secretary and treasurer of the Southern Commercial Congress, who made a report on the activities of the congress for the past year.

At the annual meeting of the sustaining members of the congress this evening the following directors were elected for the ensuing year:

Alabama—A. P. Bush, John L. Kaul, Arkansas—C. R. Breckinridge, George R. Belding, Florida—Duncan U. Fletcher, F. A. Jennings, Georgia—A. G. Candler, Harvie Jordan, Kentucky—John B. McFerrin, S. L. McKellar, Louisiana—John M. Parker, Dr. Oscar Dowling, Maryland—W. B. Hurst, C. J. Owens, Mississippi—Charles Scott, R. W. Millsaps, Missouri—David R. Francis, George W. Simmons, North Carolina—C. N. Evans, Oklahoma—Senator R. L. Owen, South Carolina—Louis W. Parker, R. I. Manning, Tennessee—Leland Hume, J. Allen Smith, Texas—Henry Exall, Adolph Boldt, Virginia—Thomas S. Southgate, E. B. White, West Virginia—Roy B. Naylor, District of Columbia—William H. Saunders, Charles A. Douglas, G. G. Dawe.

Resolutions were presented and adopted expressing the thanks of the congress to President Duncan U. Fletcher, Managing Director G. G. Dawe and Clarence J. Owens, secretary-treasurer of the organization. These officers will all probably be re-elected tomorrow.

Telegrams have been received at headquarters from all over the South asking for the next meeting of the congress, all of which will be considered tomorrow, when the next meeting place is chosen. Houston seems to be the leading candidate for the location. The congress will hold conferences all day tomorrow and will close tomorrow night with a rally, in which representatives of all the States participating will make brief addresses.

News of South Richmond

South Richmond Bureau, The Times-Dispatch, 305 Hull Street, Phone Madison 155.

The Board of Supervisors of Chesterfield yesterday at a special session held at Chesterfield Courthouse accepted the favorable report of the committee appointed to look into the advisability of opening a 110-69 highway from the Southampton Bridge to the Middlefield Turnpike. Action on the report was deferred until the regular meeting of the board in order that all property owners through whose grounds the proposed road will pass can be present to agree upon satisfactory damages.

The report of the committee calls for an entirely new road, to be fifty feet wide and about four miles long. From the bridge to the Middlefield Turnpike, the road will follow the tracks of the Norfolk and Chesapeake Bay Bridge, which is not yet in operation.

Thomas S. Winston and associates have agreed to build the road, for which the county will reimburse them $6,000, and they will pay the balance. They further agree to take over the Southampton Bridge and throw it open to the public as a free bridge.

There was a great crowd of people in attendance of the plan, T. S. Winston, E. C. Laird, S. G. Cowan, Douglas Wherry, Thomas S. Winston, Howard and Oscar Swinson. Each expressed himself as confident that the county would derive a great benefit in taking this step.

Crabs With Fine Catch.

The good yacht Comet, under command of Commodore John Hastings, clerk of the Police Court, and a crew consisting of Commonwealth's Attorney Charles Page, John S. Kelly, L. P. Fendley and several others, returned yesterday heavily laden with a fine catch of crabs, which will be distributed among their friends at the Police Court this morning. First come first served, is the motto of the crew.

While the Comet has no tall, several strange tales of the cruise are afloat, it is rumored that the merry crew spent five hours on a mud bank in the lower James waiting for the friendly tide to float the craft. Again, it is said that the crew doffed their clothes and pushed the boat over the mud banks for several miles before striking deeper water. Anyhow they are back safe, and are ready to help out a friend with a nice shad this morning.

Elks Defeat Powhatans.

An interesting and exciting game, in which the Elks defeated the Powhatans School, was played yesterday at the Spring Hill diamond. The score at the end of ninth stood 10 to 3. The game was featured by heavy hitting of the Elks, who knocked three of the Powhatans pitchers out of the box. This is the seventh straight victory for the Elks this season.

Beaten for Calling on Girl.

Because he called too frequently on a young woman, James McCall, a Forest Hill youth, was set upon last night about 10 o'clock near the corner of Tenth and Decatur Streets and given a severe beating by a crowd of boys, whose identity is unknown to their victim.

The first intimation the Southside police had of the trouble was when two hurried calls summoning the police department to quell the riot were received. Before the rioting force could get to the scene the rioters had dispersed, leaving no trace.

Many Delinquent Water Users.

Many Southsiders will think a water famine has hit his burg, was the announcement made yesterday afternoon by Inspector Jim Haber, of the Water Department, when users were larger than usual. Unless they are paid by noon to-day he will begin the work of turning off the supply, and it will stay off until the rents, with interest, are paid.

Meeting of Congregation.

The congregation of the Meade Memorial Episcopal Church will meet to-night at 8 o'clock for the purpose of electing vestrymen for the ensuing year.
